LOWER TOWNSHIP: A YEAR-ROUND DESTINATION

Lower Township has long been known for its coastal charm, rich history, and welcoming spirit, but what truly sets it apart is that its appeal extends far beyond the summer season. From windswept beaches in winter to sunlit vineyards in summer, Lower Township offers something to enjoy every month of the year. Whether you are a resident who loves exploring your own backyard or a visitor discovering Cape May County's hidden gem, there are year-round opportunities to enjoy Lower Township.

WINTER:

Peace, Reflection, and Local Flavor

When the pace slows and the crowds thin, winter in Lower Township reveals a different kind of beauty. The beaches are quiet, offering breathtaking views of the Delaware Bay and peaceful sunset strolls along Town Bank or Sunset Beach. It's the perfect time to climb the Cape May Lighthouse without a line, explore the Fire Control Tower, or enjoy indoor exhibits at Historic Cold Spring Village and the NAS Wildwood Aviation Museum. Many local restaurants stay open year-round, offering hearty meals, friendly faces, and a sense of community that warms even the chilliest day.

Spring: Nature in Bloom and Community Connections

Spring transforms Lower Township into a haven for nature lovers and a season of reconnection. Along Cox Hall Creek, the trees burst into color, and the trails fill with birdwatchers hoping to glimpse early migratory species that make this region a world-renowned stopover. The vineyards awaken, local markets reopen, and gardens begin to bloom. It's also when the Business to Community Night, hosted by the Lower Township Chamber of Commerce, brings neighbors and businesses together in a lively celebration of local enterprise and community pride. With fresh energy in the air, spring is when Lower Township truly comes alive again.

SUMMER: Celebration and Coastal Life

Summer is when Lower Township shines brightest. The beaches along the Delaware Bay invite swimmers, kayakers, and sunseekers, while the ocean-facing stretches of Cape May Point and Diamond Beach attract visitors from near and far. Local parks and playgrounds are filled with laughter, and the July 3rd fireworks paint the sky in brilliant color. Festivals like Whale of a Day bring music, food, and family fun to the heart of the community, while wineries, breweries, and outdoor dining spots buzz with energy long into the evening.

FALL: Harvest and Heritage

As summer fades, fall brings a different kind of magic. The air turns crisp, the beaches grow quieter, and the township's natural landscapes take on golden tones. It's the perfect time to visit local farms and vineyards for harvest festivals, enjoy hayrides, or take a bike ride along the Cold Spring Bike Path. Many of Lower Township's historic sites host special seasonal events, inviting visitors to explore the township's deep roots and enduring traditions. The season also brings opportunities for community giving—fundraisers, school events, and volunteer programs that embody the township's generous spirit.

ALWAYS SOMETHING TO DISCOVER

No matter the time of year, Lower Township invites exploration. From the dolphin-watch boats to the peaceful trails, from cozy winter dinners to spring celebrations, every season offers new ways to enjoy life at the southern tip of New Jersey. What makes Lower Township truly special isn't just its scenery or history, it's the people who call it home, the sense of belonging that welcomes every visitor, and the simple joy of finding beauty in every season.

Lower Township isn't just a destination. It's a year-round invitation to slow down, to connect, and to experience the heart of a community that shines in every season.

A COMMUNITY UNITED IN TRIBUTE

If you've driven through Lower Township lately and have seen the banners hanging along Bayshore, Seashore, and Breakwater Roads, you've witnessed something special. They are a visible reminder of the courage, service, and sacrifice that define this community. These banners are part of the Hometown Hero Project, a collaborative effort to honor the veterans, first responders, and military families who have dedicated their lives to protecting and serving others.

The project is the result of a true community partnership among Mayor Frank Sippel and the Township Council, the Lower Township Chamber of Commerce, and the Citizens/Veterans Advisory Committee (CVAC). The project took shape when the Township Council formally supported the Chamber's Hometown Heroes Campaign in June 2025, signaling the beginning of a program designed to make gratitude visible across the township.

The very first flag was raised on October 6, 2025, in honor and remembrance of Officer David C. Douglass, who served on the Lower Township Police Department for 18 years before losing his life in the line of duty on February 18, 1994. In addition to his police service, Douglass was a Lieutenant in the Town Bank Fire Department, a founding member of the Township's SWAT team, and an instructor at the Cape May County Police Academy. His life of service represents exactly what these flags stand for.

From that first flag on Veterans Way, the project has grown into a township-wide display of pride and remembrance. What began with a handful of business-sponsored flags has expanded to 66 Hometown Hero and business banners. Each one represents a story of courage, love of community, and the ties that bind Lower Township together.

The Lower Township Chamber of Commerce sponsored the Douglass flag and continues to support this effort alongside CVAC and the Township's Public Works Department. Together, they hope to see even more flags added in the years to come, with a goal of reaching 100 banners flying high across the township.

Each flag tells a story. Each name represents a life of service. And each display reminds us that heroism isn't something found in faraway places, it's right here at home.

If you'd like to honor a Lower Township hometown hero, please contact CVAC Chairman Johnnie Walker at 609-425-8608. To sponsor a business banner, contact the Lower Township Chamber of Commerce at 609-886-5281.

A DREAM FULFILLED: SERVICE, PERSEVERANCE, AND COMMUNITY

For Dennis Lennon, a proud Lower Township resident and former officer of the Greater Cape May Elks, it's never too late to finish what you started.

By chance, during a casual conversation, Denny learned that one of his fellow Elks members is a teacher at Northeast High School in Philadelphia. Surprised by the coincidence, Denny shared with the teacher that he had once attended Northeast himself but left before graduating—a decision that became one of his biggest regrets. Denny left Northeast in 1966 to serve his country during the Vietnam era. Enlisting in the U.S. Army, he spent two years on active duty and four years in the reserves. Stationed in Germany, Denny used his automotive repair skills to support the mission overseas while carrying the memory of his close friend Francis Ludwig, who was killed in action in 1967.

That casual, chance conversation set something remarkable in motion. With the help of this fellow Elk and many staff members at Northeast High, Denny was invited back to his alma mater to finally take part in the school's graduation ceremony. In June 2025, 58 years after leaving school, he received his diploma in front of family and friends, closing a long and meaningful chapter of his life.

"It's amazing how it made me feel," Denny said. "A little hole in my life was filled."

Today, his diploma hangs proudly on the wall of his Lower Township home, a daily reminder that service, perseverance, and community can bring dreams full circle, no matter how many years have passed.

CELEBRATING LINDA WILLIAMS:

THE HEART OF THE LOWER TOWNSHIP CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Every strong organization has people who quietly, consistently, and passionately keep it thriving. For the Lower Township Chamber of Commerce, that person is Linda Williams, Executive Director and the driving force behind its success. Linda is, quite literally, the heartbeat of the organization, an advocate, organizer, connector, and champion for the businesses and residents who make Lower Township such a special place to live and work.

Her story with the Chamber began in 1994, when then-Mayor Robert Conroy helped renew the organization. From that first moment, she stepped forward to help guide its growth, serving as a board member, secretary, vice president, and president before eventually becoming Executive Director in 2018.

Linda's leadership is rooted in her deep pride in Lower Township and her belief in the power of community. She has dedicated herself to honoring local traditions while ensuring the Chamber continues to evolve in an ever-changing business landscape. Through her tireless efforts, the Chamber has grown into what many now call a true "Chamber Family," a network that supports one another, celebrates local success, and strengthens the community as a whole.

At the true heart of this work is networking. As Linda explains, "Networking is the heart of a Chamber of Commerce. Ideas and growth come from networking with your fellow Chamber members. Recognition of your members and helping them to promote their business is such an important part of what a Chamber should do."

Keeping the community informed, leading local initiatives, and ensuring that every business, big or small, feels seen and valued is central to her work. One of her greatest achievements has been successfully reviving the Business to Community Night, turning it into one of the Township's most popular and well-attended events, where local enterprises and residents come together to connect and celebrate community spirit.

What Linda is most proud of goes beyond events or milestones. It is the relationships she has built with the municipality, the police and fire departments, Public Works, and the Chamber's many dedicated members. "Without them, there can be no Chamber of Commerce," she says. "Getting to know them is a privilege to say the least."

Whether it's celebrating business owners, welcoming new members, or honoring those who have helped build Lower Township's economic and civic foundation, Linda's focus is always on the Township and the Chamber members. This year, we proudly turn the spotlight toward her, acknowledging her unwavering commitment, leadership, and heart. Linda Williams has not only revived the Lower Township Chamber of Commerce but also grown it into a vibrant and successful organization that reflects the best of what Lower Township stands for.

Please join us in celebrating Linda Williams for her dedication, her leadership, and her boundless energy in keeping the spirit of Lower Township alive and thriving. We invite community members, business owners, and friends to share their warm messages of appreciation so Linda can truly feel the love she so richly deserves.

LOWER TOWNSHIP CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BUSINESS TO COMMUNITY NIGHT

The Lower Township chamber of Commerce held its 3rd Annual Business to Community Night on April 29, 2025.

There were over 70 Lower Twp. chamber members (vendors) attending at the Naval Air Station Wildwood Museum. Over 500 residents of our community came out to meet our members and learn about their business. It was an amazing evening and a huge success for our Chamber, and so, the
